

Alessandro Enrico Cogo (PhD, Pavia-Munich) is professor of law at the Department of Law of the University of Turin, where he serves as scientific director of the Master program in intellectual property jointly offered by the same University and the World Intellectual Property Organization with the support of the International Training Center of the International Labor Organization. Author of numerous scientific contributions covering all fields of intellectual property law, he sits in the editorial committees of Giurisprudenza Italiana (business law section), AIDA, and GADI. Faculty fellow of the NEXA Center for internet and society and member of ALAI and AIPPI, he sits in the international standing committee on copyright of the latter. Partner at CVPM Legal, he practices in the field of intellectual property law.

